

money

Money, the coins or paper notes of a country used to buy things or pay for services.

salary

A person's salary is the money that they are paid to do their job.

savings

Collecting money over a period of time is called savings. People normally have savings in case they need to buy something later on.

bank

A bank is a business for holding, borrowing, or exchanging money.

We use money so we can buy things. What would you buy if you could buy anything?

Aspirational Ant is very important in our PSHE learning this term. Why do you think this is?

Key Questions

What money is?

How is money obtained?

How people make choices about what to do with money?

What is the difference between needs and wants?

How do we keep money safe and what are the different ways of saving?

