Terms of Reference for Trust Board for Whinless Down Academy

Responsibilities

The Company is a charitable company limited by guarantee. It has entered into a Master Funding Agreement and a supplemental Funding Agreement (one for each of the schools in the Trust) in relation to the Academy both entered into with the Secretary of State (together the 'Funding Agreements').

The Trustees are the charity trustees and responsible for the general control and management of the administration of the Company in accordance with the provisions set out in the Articles of the Company.

The Local Governing Body shall be a Committee of the Trustees established pursuant to articles 100-104 of the Articles of the Company.

Legal responsibility for the Academy lies with the Company. It is governed by the Trustees, who rely on advice and support from the Academy's Local Governing Body, particularly (but not limited to) strategic planning and the specific matters delegated under these Terms of Reference.

Subject to provisions of these Terms of Reference, the Companies Act 2006, and the Articles and to any directions given by special resolution of the Trustees, the agreed Delegation of Functions Document identifies statutory duties and tasks that shall be managed by the Local Governing Body.

The Trust Board reserve the right to remove the Local Governing Body if they are not acting in the best interests of one of its Academies.

Values for the Whinless Down Academy Trust

Aspiration

by instilling high expectations and promoting a sense of ambition

Happiness

by demonstrating compassion to all and encouraging achievement to forge success

Courage

preparing children to take risks and challenging themselves

Collaboration

Being united in our educational aims and using each other's expertise to secure improvement

Imagination

Inspiring and innovating creative thinking and thinkers and creating environments where children can soar

Empowerment

Enabling children and adults to achieve the highest standards and allowing adults and children to think and communicate without fear.

Learning

To improve learning experiences and outcomes for children is at the core of the MAT's work. All members aspire to improve children's lives through the highest quality education.

Transparency

The Trust is committed to transparency, ensuring school performance is shared between partners, identifying areas for development and exploring how success might be achieved through collaborative practice. The aims and objectives of the Trust are publicly shared and open to scrutiny.

Partnership

The Trust believes that school improvement can be further enhanced through collaboration with, KMA, other schools, education agencies, children and families and the wider community.

Equality and Diversity

The Trust believes that promoting equality and diversity will strengthen and enrich the partnership. The individual and unique identity of schools and members within the partnership is something to be valued and celebrated.

People

The value of children, families and staff is fundamental and the Trust works to achieve the very best outcomes for them. The Trust only recruits high quality staff and promotes professional development both within the partnership and from the very best external sources. Integrated multi-agency working, partnerships with parents and strong pupil voice are promoted across all schools.

Accountability

The Trust has established a system of self-evaluation and school improvement across the individual partner schools. There are robust structures for accountability, where individual schools need to demonstrate rigorous governance and self-evaluation to ensure effective continuous improvement. Evaluation from external sources will be considered as appropriate.

Terminology

Members; 5 members of which two are trustees – Members appoint trustees.

Trustees: are the trustees of the Company and are listed as such on Companies House website; they may also be local governors. They attend Trust Board meetings which are arranged in accordance with the Articles of Association and in line with our scheme of delegation as are their appointment and dismissal procedures.

Local Governing Body: this is a group of governors who form the local governing body for the schools of the Academy Trust. Its responsibilities are set out in this document and in line with the WDAT scheme of delegation; it should be noted that while some of the responsibilities differ from those of the previous governing body, it is intended that strong links of communication are established between the Trust Board and The Local Governing Bodies.

The Board of Trustees

Membership – up to 9 Trustees including a minimum of 2 Parent Trustees (unless the Local Governing Bodies include at least two Parent Governors), and including the Executive Headteacher. Additional trustees can be co-opted in accordance with the Articles of Association. The total number of Trustees including the Executive Headteacher who are employees of the Company shall not exceed one third of the total number of Trustees.

All Schools will also maintain good working relationships with other local schools, community organisations and the local authority to ensure they fully serve their local communities.

Purpose

As a charity and company limited by guarantee, Whinless Down Academy Trust (the “Company”) is governed by a board of Trustees (the “directors”) who are responsible for, and oversee, the management and administration of the Trust and the academies run by the Trust.

The Trustees are accountable to the Department for Education (DfE) and external government agencies, including the Charity Commission, for the quality of the education they provide and the effective use of the associated academy funding.

They are required to have systems in place through which they can assure themselves of quality, financial probity, safety and good practice.

The Whinless Down Academy Trust (WDAT) Board is responsible for the scrutiny of statutory decisions made at the LGB, Executive Headteacher and the Senior Leadership Teams (SLT), acting as a critical friend, to ensure the efficient and effective strategic management of the all schools that comprise of the WDAT, namely Priory Fields School, St Martin’s School and Vale View School.

These terms of reference explain the ways in which the board fulfils its responsibilities for the leadership and management of the Trust. They have been adopted by the board in accordance with the Trust’s Articles of Association (the Articles) and should be read in conjunction with those Articles and with the agreed delegations of functions document.

The Board will act as a corporate body, with integrity, objectivity and honesty, with the best interests of the Whinless Down Academy Trust at all times. The Board will work within DfE guidance, remain compliant to standards of public scrutiny, and report any irregularities to the Chief Executive Officer or Chair of Trust Board.
