

What did we learn in Early Years?

We know that plants need water and sunlight to grow. We can identify the name of some common plants by their flowers

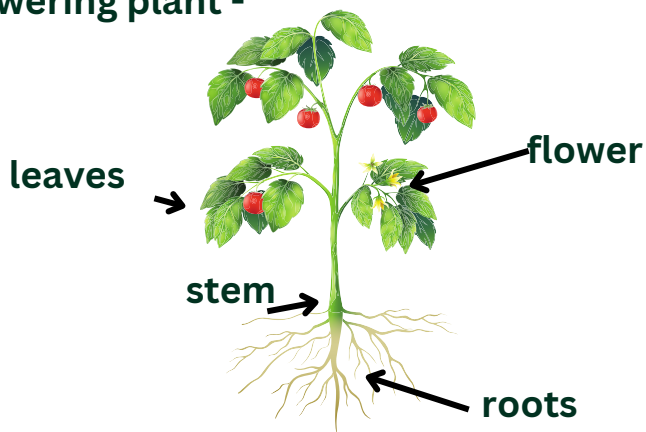

What is a deciduous tree?

A deciduous tree loses its leaves each year.

What is an evergreen tree?

An evergreen tree keeps its green leaves all year round even in winter.

This is a diagram of a flowering plant -

seeds

bulb

VOCABULARY

| | |
|----------------|---|
| wild plants | A wild plant seed grows where it falls. It doesn't need to be planted or cared for as it grows. |
| garden plants | Garden plants are plants that people choose to grow in their gardens. |
| roots | Roots take in water and nutrients from the ground. |
| stem | The stem holds the plant up. |
| leaf or leaves | The leaves catch sunlight to help the plant make its food. |
| flower | Flowers attract insects and birds. |